

Don Cogan

Don is a certified IPTPA coach who has been enjoying pickleball for many years. He was introduced to the game while vacationing in Florida and became passionate about the sport immediately.

When asked why he enjoys pickleball so much, Don replies that meeting new people and making new friends are the biggest upsides to the game. You're having FUN working out and there's always room to improve and play at different levels once you master the strategy and skills that come with the game.

I realized early on that teaching the game to entry level and intermediate players of all ages was very rewarding. I look forward to having the opportunity to work with you to help improve your skills and strategy on the court.

I have been playing Pickleball (and most definitely addicted to it!) for about 5 years. This winter year, I have been fortunate enough to have had Don Cogan playing with my group.

Because of Don's patient, consistent and encouraging coaching, my game has improved considerably.

I have finally progressed from a smashing game to a strategic dinking game, as Pickleball is meant to be played.

He has been extremely generous with his time, and his instruction is clear, concise and always positive. I didn't think it was possible for me to love PB any more than I was already loving it....but Don managed to elevate my skill AND my addiction levels! I highly recommend Don as a Pickleball coach.
